

When and Where

LOCATION: 112 E. 7th Street,

Wahoo, NE (Veterans Memorial Building)

THESE CLASSES ARE OFFERED

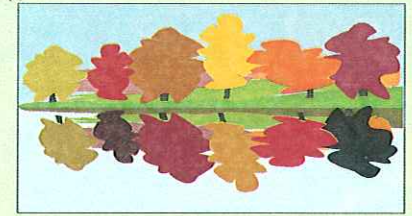

APPROXIMATELY FOUR TIMES A YEAR

PLEASE CALL FOR DATES AND TIMES

Must attend both classes to receive credit

FULL RESPONSIBILITY EDUCATION

Funding is provided by Juvenile Justice Grant obtained through the Nebraska Crime Commission

FULL RESPONSIBILITY EDUCATION

(FRE)

TO REGISTER:

For Further Details on the class or to register, Call Pam Lausterer at
(402) 443-8169

A Life Skills Program for Youth

About The Class

FRE is a life skills

program that helps youth get to the root causes of problems.

The program teaches processes rather than preaching values.

Highways Covered:

- ◆ Get the Picture
- ◆ Risk
- ◆ Full Responsibility
- ◆ Feel all Your Feelings
- ◆ Honest Communication
- ◆ Forgiveness of the Past
- ◆ Gratitude for the Present
- ◆ Hope for the Future

INSTRUCTORS:

Phil Vandevoorde
Senior Probation Officer

Pam Lausterer
Youth Service System Director

How Does FRE Work?

Participants attend two Classes.

Each class is a three hour session.

The class is for both males and females between the ages of 14-18.

Snacks are provided and gas vouchers are available to assist with transportation costs.

